

Construction site security

We watch. We protect. 24/7.

Market overview

Construction site security is a pressing issue for business owners as their companies expand and projects progress, making them attractive targets for thieves. Neglecting this concern could prove detrimental, which is why it should be a top priority.

 Construction theft claims in Canada reached $46 million in 2022.	 Less than 22% of stolen equipment is ever recovered.
 On average, construction sites experience two thefts per year.	 The average value of each theft on construction sites exceeds $16,000.

AI-powered outdoor security.

A rugged, LTE-connected, AI-enhanced sentinel with far-reaching vision and smart defense, ensuring unwavering security in the harshest outdoor conditions.

Designed to make a difference.

Sirix's Autonomous Security Box installs quickly and supports AI-powered cameras for license plate recognition, time-lapse, loitering, and smoke detection, with object detection up to 110 meters.

More on box >

Sirix's human and tech alliance. The best site defence.

Immediate alarm response. When it matters most.

We share the data, so you know it works.

More on the Event Portal >

Sirix's operator performance statistics for each site

Site-specific alarm numbers and outcome reports